

February 2012 CCVPD Highlights

Crime

1. As of Feb 7, MCPD reports that the 2nd District has had more than 20 copper gutter thefts since the first week of January; we've had only 1 in the Village.
2. Several arrests for robberies in northwest DC; we hope it will slow the robberies down.
3. No reported crime in the Village in February.
4. Arrested a solicitor on 2/7 on 2 warrants from PG County—FTA Trespass.

Personnel

1. Officer Franklyn Sanchez began working with the Village PD on February 16; sworn in by the Circuit Court Clerk on 2/23. He is in field training with a senior officer, and the field training will continue for 3 months.
2. 3 compliments (one for each of 3 officers)

Administrative

1. Feb 13 public safety partners presentation prior to the Feb Board meeting; went well
2. Attended 2/16 budget work session
3. Attended CJCC Steering Cmte meeting 2/23
4. Established our LPR data retention policy (30 days); was then invited to a discussion with MCPD on 2/23 to help them develop their policy
5. Along with Ms. Davis-Cook, Mr. Michael Younes and Cpl. Eric Tiedemann, met with ACS (SafeSpeed contractor) to review their performance under our new agreement. New cameras are in, and the two battery-powered units will soon receive electricity and communications connectivity.
6. Training goal: all sworn officers to go through Crisis Intervention Training within the next two years.
