

October 2013 CCVPD Highlights

Crime/Operational

1. Attempt nighttime burglary: At 2:35 a.m. on Wednesday, October 9, a resident in the 6000 block of Western Avenue was awakened by his home's burglar alarm. The resident investigated and noticed that the gate to the back yard was open, so he requested the police to respond. Village officers arrived very quickly, and their investigation revealed that unknown person(s) propped a garage window sash open in an apparent attempt to enter the garage. There was no sign of actual entry, and nothing was taken. Officers scoured the area looking for suspects without success. The sound of the alarm apparently scared off the would-be intruder(s).

2. 2 unlocked cars entered: Overnight Friday, October 4-Saturday, October 5, thieves entered a car on E. Melrose Street and took $15 in bills and coins; a second car on Summerfield road was entered, but nothing was taken.

Administrative

1. 2nd Medication Turn-In Day a success: In four hours on Saturday, October 26 from 10a-2p, we received 116 pounds of unwanted medication.

2. Chief attended IACP conference: Chief Fitzgerald drove to Philadelphia and attended the annual IACP conference there where he attended several seminars on current issues in policing and emerging technologies.
