Home break-in on Primrose between Connecticut and Brookville

Next-door neighbor noticed an open side door

At about 1pm on Monday, November 28, Village officers responded to a suspicious situation in the unit block of Primrose Street. The caller reported that his next-door neighbor was away, but the side door to his neighbor's home had been wide open since yesterday. Officers found that the door had been forced open and investigation revealed that someone had obviously been inside the home. The homeowners had not requested a house check.

It is unknown at this time whether anything was taken or what time of day that the break-in occurred. The investigation is continuing.

Three unlocked cars entered on the east side

All 3 occurred overnight Friday, 11/25-Saturday, 11/26

- Unit block of Quincy Street: credit cards and a $20 bill taken.
- 100 block of Oxford Street: unknown if anything taken.
- 3800 block of Bradley Lane: car parked in driveway; nothing taken.
