

May 2018 CCVPD Highlights

Crime/Operational

4 vehicles-related theft incidents occurred in May. All events occurred at nighttime. In one unusual incident, a brick was thrown through a car window so that the thieves could steal a backpack and other items in plain view. The remainder of the cars were unlocked.

- 5900 block Cedar Parkway: May 1; brick through window; backpack, shoes, jacket taken.
- Summerfield Road: May 19; unlocked in street; nothing taken.
- Unit block Oxford Street: May 19; unlocked in driveway; nothing taken.
- 5600 block Kirkside Drive: May 30; unlocked in driveway; sunglasses taken.

Personnel/Administrative

- Both of our recent hires—Communications Clerk Jerome Smith and Officer Ryan Patterson—did an excellent job completing all training successfully and are working solo. We are at full staffing.
- On May 25, the Village Manager has promoted Regina Cortez to Lead Communications Clerk; Regina was formerly on the night shift, so you will see her during the day in Communications.
- The security camera system in Western Grove Park (owned and operated by M-NCPPC) is now operational.
- Staff participated in the annual Law Enforcement Torch Run to benefit Special Olympics.
