

June 2019 CCVPD Highlights

Crime/Operational

Four unlocked cars entered this month:

- 3 cars entered overnight June 16-17: Unit block of E. Kirke, 100 block of E. Kirke, 6000 block of Connecticut Avenue; nothing taken from two of them, papers taken and found from the third
- 1 car entered overnight June 25-26: 6300 block of Broad Branch Road; clothing items taken

Administrative/Personnel

1. Police staffing:

- Officer Eli Perper, with us for 4 years, has resigned to accept a police officer position with a municipality in Prince George’s County
- Another officer is currently in the application process for another local police department
- On June 26, Chief Fitzgerald met with police academy students at the Prince George’s County Community College to recruit them to apply for our upcoming police officer position vacancy

2. Training:

On June 11, Sgt. Tiedemann, Lt. Dasilva and Chief Fitzgerald attended a free, 1-day seminar sponsored by LGIT entitled, ‘Reducing Police Liability’ presented by a nationally-known police risk management lawyer.
