Do you currently enjoy a class that you would like to attend closer to home?

Do you know an instructor who is looking for a location to hold their classes or ongoing activities such as art, crafts or language instruction?

The Village Hall is a great setting for classes and ongoing activities. The Village is interested in offering new classes for the community to enjoy. Classes can be geared toward adult and child participants and can be a great way to attend your favorite class or activity close to home. Want to learn more or to connect the Village to an instructor you love? Contact the Village's Administrative & Constituent Services Assistant Jennifer Young by email ccv@montgomerycountymd.gov or phone 301-654-7300.
